MUST KILL WHOLE FAMILY

So Says Sheriff Madden
who May Destroy Cabin
at Sundown; Fighting
On at Noon

WINTER, Wis., Oct. 8.—All the five members of the Dietz family, besieged here, are believed to be dead or wounded. Following the fierce battle of this morning the deputies poured volley after volley from high power rifles into the log cabin, the bullets from these guns piercing the walls like paper. At 1 p. m. Leslie Dietz ran from the house to the barn alone. From there he fired on the deputies who thereupon concentrated fire upon the barn. Sheriff Madden believes all but Leslie are wounded or dead. He said the battle would be over this afternoon.

WINTER, Wis., Oct. 8.—John F. Dietz, defender of Cameron Dam, this morning during a sharp engagement with the deputies which surrounded his cabin at Thornapple River, was shot in the neck and his son, Leslie, 20 years old, was wounded in the groin.

During the assault on the Dietz's cabin several hundred rounds were fired by the deputies. The besieged, however, replied only at intervals, apparently saving their ammunition. There is great unrest among the deputies today who surround the cabin. They declare they are tiring of the man hunt because of the severe exposure they are subjected to both day and night and every effort will be made to dislodge the defender of Cameron Dam before tonight.

Battle This Morning
WINTER, Wis., Oct. 8.—In a terrific gun battle at 9:45 a. m. today, John and Leslie Dietz are believed to have been wounded. Both dropped to their knees under a hail of bullets from the deputies, but succeeded in getting back into the cabin.

It was Dietz who precipitated the battle. He walked about 100 yards from the house alone, carrying two heavy revolvers.

John Britton, a deputy sheriff, called on him to throw up his hands and surrender.

Drops to His Knees

Dietz wheeled and ran for the cabin and the army of deputies opened fire on him. About 50 feet from the cabin, Dietz dropped to his knees, probably wounded. However, he faced the deputies and began shooting with a revolver in each hand. Leslie Dietz then ran out to his father's aid, emptying his own gun at the besiegers and refilling his father's revolver with cartridge. After several minutes of fighting Leslie dragged his father toward the cabin. The boy apparently dropped on the threshold and is believed to be wounded. Mrs. Dietz came out and helped them in side. She was not injured.

May Kill Whole Family

After the battle, Sheriff Madden expressed the belief that it would be necessary to kill the whole family to get Dietz. He said the deputies could easily capture Dietz were it not for fear of harming the wife and children. The firing continued at noon. It was reported that the deputies would rush the cabin in an attempt to destroy it at sundown.

DEMOCRATS MAKE BATTLE PLANS

Minority Party Thinks It Sees a Good Chance to Capture La Crosse
County

SCHMITZ WILL SPEAK HERE

Marching Clubs will Be Organized in Every Ward and Precinct

Contending that the democrats have the best opportunity in twenty years to capture La Crosse county, local leaders are planning a rejuvenation of the party of such unusual proportions that the promised awakening will sweep surrounding counties to victory, too.

Marching clubs in every ward in the city, similar organizations in the country districts and two speeches nightly for at least four weeks before election are a part of the whirlwind campaign soon to be started here under the direction of County Chairman E. J. Kneen, candidate for re-election to the legislature.

The opening gun will be fired in La Crosse at the La Crosse theatre Saturday night, October 16, when Adolph Schmitz, Milwaukee, democratic candidate for governor will speak. Mr. Schmitz is the attorney who prosecuted the graft cases in the state treasury department several years ago and as an original and thorough democrat is known to everyone.

Many Speakers to Come
One of the plans of La Crosse county democrats is the securing of practically every able speaker in the state party to speak at La Crosse and it is expected that the county will be flooded with democrats, not only of fame in this state but of national reputation.

A meeting of the executive committee of the county campaign committee is to be held tonight in the law offices of Wolfe & Wolfe, in the Heberd building, Fourth and Main streets, when plans for the coming campaign will be completed.

Seek County Plums

The efforts of the democrats will undoubtedly be concentrated on the offices of register of deeds, clerk of circuit court and sheriff.

With Chris Burns, former sheriff, running against E. H. Derr, republican, one of the prettiest fights for votes in the history of the county is expected. With the city normally democratic, however, the democrats expect to increase their majority here and make gains in the county sufficiently large to elect Burns.

The announcement of Frank Aiken, republican, that he will independently run against Andrew Thompson for election to the register of Deeds office, has filled the hearts of democrats with glee and they are confident of at least capturing this office.

The fact that a man, practically unknown in the city, came within a few votes of defeating Russell Smith for the republican nomination, they contend, shows that his strength is not great enough to overcome that that can be totaled by a strong democrat and every effort will be made to land this office.

For other offices they express themselves as being satisfied with their chances while nowhere in the ranks is there any feeling that Assemblyman E. J. Kneen will be defeated for re-election.

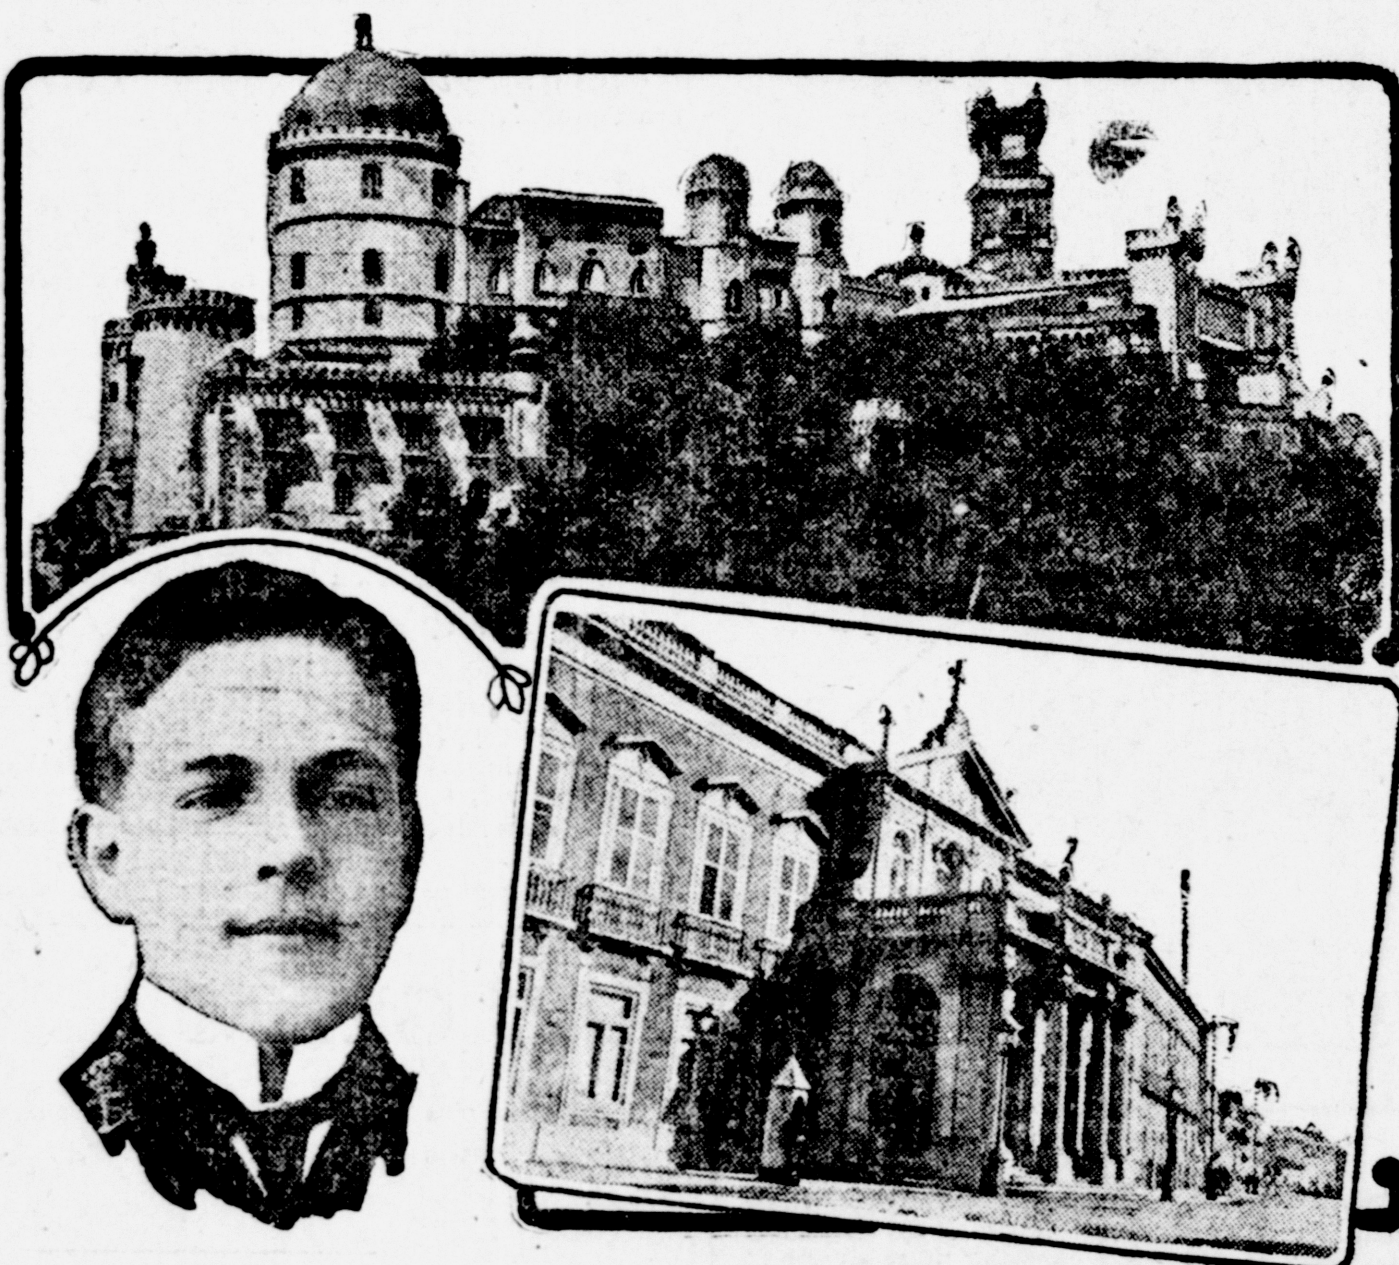

The organization of the marching clubs commences tomorrow, following the meeting of the executive committee tonight and prizes will be awarded the city wards turning out the largest marching clubs.

On the night of the address of Schmitz at the theatre the clubs will be headed by a band and march in a body to the theatre.

The Program.
Commencing Wednesday, October 19, two meetings will be held nightly and the following is a portion of the program as prepared by Chairman E. J. Kneen and Attorney A. C. Wolfe:

City. Country
Oct. 19—Concordia — Burr Oak
Oct. 20—Rose and Cal. Sts.

Oct. 28—Meinertz hall—Campbell.
Oct. 29—Kabat's hall—Onalaska.
Other meetings will be announced later.

BODY OF DROWNED GIRL FOUND TODAY

Fishermen Discover Remains of Mary Clark Floating in the River Near Running Slough

The body of Miss Mary Clark, who walked into the Mississippi river at the foot of Pearl street last Saturday night, was recovered in the Mississippi river near Running Slough this morning at 7 o'clock by three young men, who were fishing in that vicinity. The body was brought to this city and buried in Oak Grove cemetery this afternoon.

This morning Joseph Spika, 1508 South Ninth street; George Hanus, 1108 Market street, and Otto Zilke, 1612 South Eighth street, went fishing in the vicinity of Running Slough. While fishing along the banks of the river they discovered something floating down the main channel of the river. At first they thought it might be a floating chip, but it bobbed up several times and they saw that it looked like clothing. Another fisherman was catching minnows nearby and he, also, saw the floating object. Together they rowed to the spot and discovered that it was the body of a person and they took it ashore and then telephoned the central police station.

Coroner Leonard Kleeber was notified and with Officers Volton and Horschak they drove to the scene in the police buggy. When they arrived at the spot they found the body tied to the shore and they had it turned over to Tetley & Elbertsen, who took the remains to their undertaking rooms.

Upon examination it was found that there were no marks on the body and the coroner decided that no inquest was necessary. The body was identified by the father and brother of the girl. The clothing was the same as that which was worn when Miss Clark had her picture taken a short time ago. She still had on her gloves and inside of one of them was a five cent piece. This is all that was found on her person. No notes or anything to throw any light upon the case was found in any of her pockets. Considering the fact that the body had been in the water for a week it was in good condition. It was not out of proportion and only a few bruises where the skin had been torn from striking objects in the river were discovered.

Decedent was born near Bagley, Wis., and was 19 years, 10 months and three days of age. She was always of a good natured disposition and for some time had been employed in the Elite laundry at St. Paul. She came to this city a week ago last Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, who reside on the North side, and during her visit here there was nothing in her actions to indicate that she contemplated ending her life. Last Saturday afternoon she was seen in the vicinity of the river and for over an hour she was noticed standing on the corner of Front and Pearl streets, gazing at the river. Late in the afternoon she returned to her home, but complained of not feeling well. She ate no supper and later left for the south side. Her folks believed she intended to attend a dance.

About 10 o'clock at night she was

ST. LOUIS FLIGHT LIKELY SUCCESS

Hoxsey Leaves Springfield
and Expects to Reach Destination by 4
O'Clock

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 8.—Hoxsey, flying high and direct toward the Killoch aviation field, was sighted by the officials of the Aero club at 2:15 o'clock. He was about 11 miles from St. Louis. Walter Brookings and J. Clifford Turpin, in Wright bi-planes, have gone aloft and it is expected they will strike out to meet Hoxsey.

Hoxsey was barely discernible at great about two and a half miles southwest of the field and was apparently lost.

Bombs were fired to attract his attention.

Arch Hoxsey landed for the first time in his flight from Springfield to St. Louis at the Country club grounds, near Clayton, about six miles from the aviation field. He lost his way owing to haze over St. Louis and landed to get his bearings.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 8.—"I expect to be in St. Louis by 4 o'clock this afternoon. I expect to make the trip without landing but the wind is against me and if it is necessary for me to land, I will stop at Staunton, my old home."

With this statement, Arch Hoxsey mounted the Wright brothers' aeroplane at 11:59 this morning at a state fair grounds and started on his southward flight to St. Louis. He soared over the grounds and struck southeast holding his course for half a mile when he rounded over the Chicago and Alton tracks and pointed the nose of his machine to the southwest.

He followed Chicago and Alton special train through the city passing within half a block of the capitol building. He was flying not over 400 feet high.

Hoxsey will follow the Chicago and Alton tracks from here to Alton. The special Chicago and Alton train carries members of the St. Louis Aero club and St. Louis newspaper men. Arrangements have been made at Staunton to receive young Hoxsey if he should land there.

EVIDENCE MAINE WAS BLOWN UP FROM THE OUTSIDE

HAVANA, Oct. 8.—The first bit of evidence that the battleship Maine, blown up in Havana harbor twelve years ago last February, was destroyed by an explosion from the outside, as contended by the United States government, was found today by workers engaged in raising the wreck, in the discovery of the foremast of the vessel.
The foremast was found some distance from the rest of the wreck and the engineers who examined it, after it had been dragged upon the wharf, gave it as their opinion that it had been blown from the ship by an explosion from the outside.

MENAGE UNCLE SAM'S SUBJECTS

Anarchy Exists in Honduras Today and Foreign Warships Are Requested Today

GUATEMALA CITY, Oct. 8.—Foreign residents of Amapala, Honduras, are fleeing from the city today to escape prosecution at the hands of the commandant, who last night gave orders that the Americans and English be jailed and their property confiscated. Owing to the anti-foreign feeling, an order of imprisonment is regarded as equivalent to execution.

American Property Seized

It is reported that American interests are menaced by the outbreak and that much property of the American colony already has been seized by the commandant.

The British consul at Amapala has escaped to San Salvador where he cabled his government to despatch a cruiser to protect British interests. When the Amapala commandant was informed of this action by the consul he announced he would burn the city immediately upon the appearance of a British vessel. The commandant had ordered the arrest of the British representative on a charge of fomenting a revolution.

Natives are Pillaging
A state of anarchy prevails today among natives and no attempt is made by authorities to prevent the pillaging of homes of foreigners.

'Death to Taft's Dogs'

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 8.—A New Orleans trading house today received private advices that Americans in Honduras have appealed to Warship to send a warship to Amapala, which town is under martial law.

"Death to Taft's dogs," is a byword of the Honduran element whose hostility is a result of American interference in Central American affairs.

U. S. Sends Gunboat
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 8.—At the request of the state department Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop sent today cable instructions to the commander of the United States gunboat Princeton at Acapulco, Mexico, to leave at once for Amapala, Honduras, to protect American interests as the results of the report that a revolution has broken out in that city and that all foreign interests are in danger.

The action was taken at the request of the Honduras government.

Another Revolution

According to information obtained here the governor of the western province of Honduras has threatened to overthrow the government and has further threatened the lives and property of foreign residents in Amapala in case the government resists.

Requests for aid are said to have been sent to other governments besides the United States and the warships of several nations will soon be at Amapala. The Princeton sails for Acapulco at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Since the last Bonilla revolution Honduras has been in a state bordering on anarchy. It is known that very little was needed to cause a crisis.

PICTURES GO ON TONIGHT THE INCIDENT IS CLOSED

OBJECTORS ALSO MAKE STATEMENT

Point Out that They Exhausted All Legal Means of Preventing Appearance of Pictures

On behalf of the church societies engaged in opposing the production of the fight pictures the following statement is made:

We, the undersigned pastors representing the young people societies of this city, are requested to make a statement to the public of the outcome of their effort to have the exhibition of the Johnson-Jeffries prize fight pictures prohibited in this city.

We went to the mayor and requested him to prohibit the exhibition of these pictures, as mayors had done in other cities. He declined to interfere. Then we proceeded to take steps to have the prize fight pictures prohibited by the legal process of injunction. The injunction was served upon the manager of the Majestic theatre. The injunction was discarded and the prize fight pictures were exhibited. Did we see fit, we might today add new names to our protest and renew the injunction, but we have decided that we have done everything that might reasonably be expected from us.

We protested to the mayor. We protested in a legal form to the management of the Majestic theatre, and now we let the responsibility rest where the public may please to place it.

The young people's societies and the right-thinking element of the community have shown very emphatically their utter disapproval of prize fights and all exhibitions of the same. We endeavored to save the name of La Crosse from the odium of countenancing, or having in our city any exhibition of the brutalizing and degrading prize fight.

We are in this community to do everything in our power to make this city a clean and safe place to bring up young people and for the host of young people who come to our city for business or education.

We are opposed to all forms of lawless and degrading amusements. We stand for everything that makes for character and manhood in the individual, in the home, in society and in business. We may be unpopular if we have to make the choice.

We would like to see La Crosse "a place where it is difficult to do wrong and easy to do right."

AEROPLANE FASTER THAN AUTOMOBILE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 8.—Aviator Hoxsey in his Wright bi-plane at the Illinois state fair grounds this morning won the aeroplane automobile race, the big card of the week. Barney Oldfield, driving a Knox car, failed to cover six miles on the race track in less time than it took Hoxsey to go five miles.

Hoxsey's time for the five miles was seven minutes, 6 1/2 seconds. Oldfield's time for the six miles was 7 minutes, 48 seconds.

By winning the race Hoxsey captured the $150 silver cup offered by the Illinois Watch Company. Oldfield received a smaller cup.

Immediately after the race Hoxsey alighted and began preparations for his long flight to St. Louis.

KOPPELBERGER OFFERS ADVICE

Manager Acted in Good Faith and Suggests Fairer Method in Conduct
of Such Cases

The fight against the fight pictures is over. Despite what purported to be an injunctive order issued against them they appeared at the Majestic last evening, and they will be reproduced at the theatre tonight.

The objectors will take no action in relation to the violation of the supposed injunction, according to a statement issued by them today, the purport of which is that they have exhausted their means of procedure to stop the presentation, and that their protest has been given such publicity as to have much of the effect desired.

The papers were issued at 7:25 o'clock last evening and were served upon Manager Koppelberger at the box office of the Majestic theatre, after the audience was mostly seated. Upon the advice of his lawyer, J. E. Higbee, Manager Koppelberger ignored the proceedings and went on with the show.

The complaint and bond were signed by E. E. Bentley, president of the Ratanian bank, and the order was issued by Court Commissioner John A. Daniels and served by the sheriff.

There was some talk this morning of contempt proceedings, but it was learned this afternoon that no such steps would be taken, and later an official statement was made on behalf of the church societies represented in the protest.

Koppelberger's Statement.

In explanation of what happened last evening, Manager Koppelberger made the following statement today: "I have no disposition to discuss this rather unpleasant incident, now that it is closed, but in order that the public may fully understand my attitude it seems best to me to make a brief statement.

"As I said yesterday, I contracted for the pictures only after a careful personal investigation as to their cleanliness and desirability. I became satisfied that their production would be proper and I am convinced the majority of the public agree with me that there is no impropriety in their presentation. Upon closing the contract last Monday, I immediately advertised them for Friday and Saturday.

Were Amply Advertised

"By their immediate advertisement the most ample notice of their coming appearance which it was within my power to give was afforded. Advertisements of them appeared daily, but I never was approached by any citizen and advised or asked not to run them, my only notice of a protest having come to me indirectly through the press. Through that same medium I learned that the mayor would not interfere, and therefore believed that nothing could prevent the appearance of the pictures unless I chose not to produce them. Having regard for public sentiment in reference to the Majestic

Is it the Hair or the Face that makes the Woman?

If you think it is the face, take another look at the two heads pictured here. One shows a girl which the most critical would pronounce beautiful. While her features are fairly perfect her greatest charm lies in a mass of fine lustrous hair. The opposite picture is identical as to features and other detail except that the wealth of hair is wanting. Both of these ladies would attract attention anywhere but each for a different reason, one on account of her superb beauty and the other on account of her comical appearance. The hair makes all the difference. A woman loses her good looks in exact proportion as she loses her hair.

Newbro's Herpicide Saves the Hair

There is nothing which is so destructive to the hair as dandruff. This annoying trouble to which everyone is more or less exposed is due to the working of an invisible growth or microbe called the Dandruff Germ. It robs the hair of the snap and luster of health, burrows down into the follicle, and eventually loosens the hair, allowing it to fall out. Newbro's Herpicide applied regularly and intelligently kills this germ, keeps the scalp clean and hair healthy. Falling hair is thus prevented and, if the hair follicles have not become atrophied, a new growth of hair may be anticipated. The life and luster of Herpicide hair is beautiful to see, is unmistakable. An abundance of fluffy, glittering hair is woman's chiefest beauty and to permit its needless destruction is unpardonable.

GUARDS GOVERNOR AT THE CAPITOL

Will Be Killed in One Hour, Says Letter, if John Dietz Is Shot

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 8.—Capitol police closely scrutinized all visitors to the capitol grounds and buildings on Friday on special orders, the object being to protect Gov. Davidson.

The governor has received several more letters in which his life and the lives of members of his family are threatened if John Dietz is killed. One letter mailed in Madison says that the governor will be killed within one hour after John Dietz is killed, and further explains that there are eight anarchists in Madison who are parties to the plan.

Another similar letter was mailed in St. Paul and is marked with a skull and crossbones and a black hand.

The third letter is from Minneapolis and threatens all the immediate relatives of the governor. The governor showed no concern over the letters until the names of his family were mentioned. He has been advised to turn the letters over to the postal authorities.

Mr. Davidson has made no statement, but it is said that clerks in his office assert that he will not go to Winter. He has received no official reports from Attorney General Gilbert or Col. Munson, his private secretary.

Viroqua is to have a lecture course for this coming winter.

Mrs. Herbert Chapman entertained a number of friends at her home near this city Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Geo. Morgan of Chattanooga, Tenn. She was a former resident here, when her husband owned a photograph gallery in this city, but they moved from here twenty years ago.

The report of the City Treasurer Amund Belland, at the meeting of the city council this week, showed that there was a balance of $401.98 on hand. It was therefore voted to borrow $1,000. John Chase and Miss Lucy Dawson were re-elected members of the library board, for a term of three years.

Marriage licenses were granted to the following: Ray Waterman and Mae Norris, both of this city; Herman Alexander of Kickapoo, and Edith M. Vance of Stark.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Last Resort

Meanness in little things was magnificently exemplified by the Scotsman who was traveling in the smoking compartment of a railway train.

Don't whip the bowels with a harsh cathartic. You can do just as much, and gently, with a candy Cascaret. Harsher physic makes the bowels hard, so you increase the dose. Cascarets leave the bowels normal, so one tablet is enough.

He had carefully filled his pipe, and, turning to the man on his right, he asked, "Ha's ye a match?" The reply was a regretful negative. A similar inquiry addressed to the only other male occupant of the carriage met with a similar response, "Ah, weel," exclaimed the son of Scotland ruefully, "I must e'en use one of my ain!"—London Chronicle.

Expert Medical EXAMINATION AND CONSULTATION FREE

I want to talk to every sufferer. The fact that you have been treated elsewhere without benefit and are skeptical does not discourage me in the least; nearly all of our patients tell of this same experience. I can cure men and women every day and feel sure I can do the same for you. I especially solicit the stubborn, chronic, seemingly incurable cases. Persons who realize the seriousness and gravity of their condition, and will appreciate benefits conferred and the cure I give, come to me for free consultation. I will then explain how different, better and more curative are my methods of treatment than those possessed by others. My special training and long years of experience in treating all Chronic, Nervous, Blood, Pelvic and Special Diseases give me many advantages over the average physician.

I treat Rheumatism, Enlarged Veins, Fistula, Piles, Constipation, All Rectal Diseases, Weak and Unhealthy Kidneys, and Lingering Ailments.

I personally attend everyone who applies for treatment at my office, as I have no incompetent hired doctors to unskillfully treat my patients, and every man who engages my services gets the benefit of the efficiency that has marked my success in the past.

I have cured thousands, many of whom had been given up for lost. If your physical system has been injured, if your vitality is exhausted from overwork or worry, if you are tainted by disease in any form, you owe it to yourself to seek and obtain a restorative power at once.

MY COUNSEL WILL COST YOU NOTHING, BUT MY CHARGES FOR A PERFECT CURE WILL BE REASONABLE AND NOT MORE THAN YOU WILL BE WILLING TO PAY FOR THE BENEFIT CONFERRED.

WHO SHALL LEAD?

The Boston Post is as emphatic in its condemnation of the New York
republican state platform as is the New York Post. The former paper
says:

"Does Boss Roosevelt believe that the people of New York are so different from those of Wisconsin that they will swallow his tariff twaddle?
Or does he believe that his personal
force can club the voters into endorsing something they detest? Wisconsin will go republican in November and New York will go democratic. The reason will not be far to seek."

This paragraph concludes with a statement which, if it comes true,
may have a large significance in the future proceedings of the national progressive republican party. It is within the possibilities that in choosing a presidential candidate
they may prefer the substance to
the shadow, the deed to the word.
Wisconsin's ambition to elect the first progressive president may become a factor to the extent to which a solid home support is of value, and the action of the Dunn county republicans in launching a La Follette boom for 1912 is merely the first
expression of a state-wide sentiment.
But broader and more compelling than this is the conviction that has taken hold in other states that compromise is related to capitulation,
and that the real progressive movement requires an uncompromising progressive leadership. Nowhere in the forest of progressive timber is there a tree so sturdy as the Wisconsin Pine we know as "Bob." His words have been the signals for deeds. He has not talked without performance. Behind him is a record of things done. He has achieved in Wisconsin what the national progressives aspire to have done in the nation. Seeking results, the progressive cause may well prefer a man who has demonstrated his ability to get results.

And so, if the Roosevelt ticket in New York is beaten this fall (as it may be) and if the La Follette ticket is elected in Wisconsin (as it will be) the outcome may serve not only to eliminate one prospective candidate, but also to solidify sentiment

for another.

WINONA "BEATS US TO IT"

About a year ago W. J. Bryant president of the Manufacturers and Jobbers' Club, made a strong but unhappily futile effort to create a fund for the repair of the La Crescent turnpike. The thing Mr. Bryant sought is still the most urgent demand upon the attention of La Crosse business men. If anyone doubts it, read this from the Winona
Republican-Herald:

"The action of the council Monday evening in allowing a large sum for fixing up Mankato Avenue next year
is one that will meet with the approval of not only people in Winona,
but those who come to the city to trade. This road has always been in a condition that was not a good advertisement for the city, but it has been far ahead of the road leading from La Crescent across the bottoms into La Crosse. FOR THAT REASON MANY FARMERS WHO LIVE NEARER LA CROSSE ON THE RIDGE HAVE PREFERRED
TO COME TO THIS CITY AND
THEY WILL SURELY COME IN INCREASING NUMBERS AFTER
THE ROAD IS FURTHER IMPROV-ED. Brick is the only logical pavement for the heavy traffic that will use this road."

During the course of a number of years The Tribune has from time to time warned La Crosse business men that Winona profits by the bad condition of the La Crescent road.
During the past year Mr. Harry Taggart, secretary of the Merchants'
Association, made a personal investigation which corroborated our assertion. Now comes Winona's evening newspaper to further verify this statement. It says:

That in the past Winona has drawn trade from us because its competing road was better than our La Crescent road.

That it will now enjoy an even greater advantage because its competing road, by order of its city council, is to be PAVED WITH BRICK.

Is La Crosse "disposed to be of the number of those who, having eyes, see not, and having ears, hear
not the things that so nearly concern their temporal salvation?"

THE MINNESOTA PRIMARY LAW

When Sydney Anderson was nominated for congress over James A.
Tawney, Scott Laird, publisher of the Winona Republican-Herald, the Tawney organ, hastened to Lanesboro to assure the new candidate of the support of that paper. Now that Mr. Tawney has publicly declined to support Mr. Anderson the attitude of the Republican-Herald will be watched with interest. Monday, the day upon which Mr. Tawney declared against Mr. Anderson, the paper's only editorial comment was as follows:

"Saturday we published a statement by Mr. Tawney relative to his recent defeat in the primaries. The table has been prepared with much care and shows to what extent the vote for the two republican candidates was increased over that of two years ago, and the vote for the democratic candidate reduced. It is an old adage that 'figures do not lie.'
We believe that every voter throughout the district should carefully study the table and that he will then come to the conclusion that the present primary law is not the best law that could be passed. When the present primary law was passed it was generally supposed that it was to prohibit democrats from voting
republican tickets and vice versa
but it now appears this has not been the case. Whether the legislature will listen to the requests for a change in the present law to absolutely make the primaries strictly partisan or whether they will decide
that the lines should be more loosely
drawn so that there will be no question as to what party a voter belongs
will be watched with much interest."

This comment upon the Minnesota primary law supplements the claim of Mr. Tawney that democrats defeated him, and reference is made to the "loose" character of that law.
When the Minnesota law is compared with the Wisconsin primary
this will be seen to be hardly justified. In Minnesota the voter is obliged to ask the election clerk for the ballot he wants to vote. If he is recognized as a democrat he may be immediately challenged by any
election official who may object.
When challenged he must make one of two affidavits. He must swear:

That he voted the ticket he now wishes to vote, or for a majority of the candidate on that ticket in the last preceding election, or that he proposes to change his party affiliation and join the party whose ticket he now wishes to vote.

This seems to throw all the obstacles offered by red tape in the way of voting outside one's party.
Over here in Wisconsin it would be regarded as a pretty tight proposition. Mr. Tawney's talk about being defeated by democratic votes will not make a deep impression where the Minnesota primary law is understood.

The Tribune desires to advise its readers that "The Girl in the Taxi," which appears at the La Crosse Theatre Tuesday night, is a performance
the sensuous vulgarity of which must shock the most sophisticated playgoer while to the sensitive feminine mind it cannot be less than abhorrent. We say this with full knowledge of the fact that plays presented by this theater are ordinarily chaste and wholesome, believing that
for this very reason discriminating people unfamiliar with the character of this play may, unless warned, innocently subject themselves to the humiliation of being seen in the audience.

In making this statement The Tribune is moved by a sense of duty to its subscribers, and in fairness to the local managers we feel impelled to add that play houses are frequently victimized and innocently
become subject to the terms of contracts to abrogate which they are powerless.

Citizens interested in establishing the facts relating to the cost of producing electricity would do well
to get the figure for power current enjoyed recently by Listman Mill. No doubt that was a rock-bottom contract, and as it may be presumed the light company did not sell the current at a figure below that which it paid the Water Power company for the product, a sound basis for computation seems available.

Why should not the "ready to serve" charge be suspended where the patron's consumption of current exceeds that fixed charge? The spirit of that rule is that it shall operate to reimburse the company for the maintenance of equipment of which the use is insufficient to warrant the expenses. Any other view would be to ask patrons to pay the coal dealer
for keeping a shovel.

Doubtless inveigled by Madam
Schumann-Heink's interview in defense of "ragtime" as the "a. b. c. of music," an athletic sporting gentle of some local note put up his $2.50 for a front seat. Asked after the performance how he liked it, he said,
"She ain't much on the pipes, but Lord! what a wrestler she'd a-been!"

We pause to reflect that if Neighbor Sam Langum were under the right banner he would make a mighty good soldier. Maybe, when Sam gets used to the idea the sun do rise and the sun do set without the official sanction of positively-my-last appearance Tawney, he may enlist in a new and better cause.

Madame Schumann-Heink was distinctly worth while, and her cordial and generous reception was as much a compliment to the patrons of music in this community as it was to the diva. Mr. Carl Noeke and the management of the La Crosse
theater are to be credited with a real achievement.

The Security Savings bank's new directorate denotes the acquisition of stockholders who are a credit to
that always progressive institution,
and their affiliation may be taken as an expression of confidence in the bank's plucky and capable cashier,
J. A. Thwing

The big attendance at the first fall
meeting of the civic center indicates the existence of a deep interest in this institution. We expect its treatment of the lighting problem at its forthcoming meeting will emphasize its importance in the community.

Humanity suggests that those pa-
trients who have been waving distress
signals at Senator La Follette refrain from further importunities until the patient is discharged from the hospital where he has undergone a precarious operation.

Col. Roosevelt seems to have saddled himself with the odium of Mr.
Hearst's support without getting it.
The Independence League ticket
probably spells the defeat of the republican organization.

John Dietz' refusal to trust Governor Davidson suggests a fear on the part of the Goliath of Cameron Dam
that another campaign fund is being raised.

Mike Deslys' declaration that she still loves King Manuel tends to corroborate the story that the king escaped encumbered by the royal ducats.

In a Sunday school address a teacher quoted oddities from a number of children's biblical compositions that had been submitted
to him in competition for a prize.
Among the more whimsical oddi-
ties were:

"Manna is being polite."
"Jerusalem was surrounded with walls to keep in the milk and honey."

"Jacob was a patriarch by trade.
In them days people lived on corn,
like horses do now. They always called pudden and porridge messes.
Jacob could eat a good mess, but Esau, who was the eldest, could not eat as much as you might think. The patriarch Moses never ate nothing
except when there was a famine."

A Long Probation

A good example of the kind of story Mark Twain used to like to weave into his after-dinner speeches was the tale of the drinker who unwillingly put in an application for membership in a temperance society, sailed the next day on a three-years' voyage, on which he kept the pledge in spite of longing and temptation, and returned to resign
only to find that his name had been blackballed originally. — Buffalo

A Dry Weather Horse

Jacob Hope, the animal expert of Philadelphia, was talking about animal fakers.
"There was a Manayunk man," he said, "who wanted a piebald horse.
He visited a dealer up in the Blocks
and the dealer the next day produced a beautiful piebald—half cream
and half black—that the man bought
at a stiff price.

"But the first time he drove his
new purchase in the park a rain
came up and the spots washed off.
The horse wasn't a piebald after all.
The man drove straight to the dealer's again.

"Look at that horse!" he said.
"The rain has taken all the spots
off."
"Good gracious," said the dealer,
"so it has. There was a rubber blanket went with the animal, sir. Did I forget to give you a rubber blanket?" — Washington Star.

"Weren't you two girls friends in town?"
"Oh, yes."

"Then, why this coolness since you meet on the farm?"
"Well, we both said we were go-

The CARLETON
CASE
BY ELLERY H. CLARKCopyright by Bobbs-Merrill Company

Vaughan shook his head. "No,
indeed," he answered. "I only wish I had. You see it's just as I told you. I'm a poor man, and I've got to make good first, before I can decently ask her to leave a home like the one she's got now. Mr. Carleton put all that part of it to me plainly enough yesterday. Plainly enough, and fairly enough, too. I have to admit that. But I can't help wishing, just the same, for once in my life, that I did have a little money to fall back on, or that my prospects were a little brighter.
However, I surely can't complain.
And now, Jack, it's your turn. How about yourself, and how about the ranching? Is it all you thought it would be?"

But Carleton did not seem disposed to talk of himself. "Oh, yes,"
he answered absently, "all that, and more. It's the greatest ever—" then,
breaking off abruptly, he asked,
"Do you know, Arthur, when Colonel Graham's expected back
from England?"

Vaughan looked at him with a smile. "Colonel Graham?" he said,
"did you say Colonel, Jack?"
Carleton nodded. "That's what I said," he answered, "Colonel Graham. You know I used to be pretty good friends with him once on a time."

Vaughan's smile broadened.
"Yes, I know," he answered dryly,
"and you used to be very good friends with some one else. Are you sure it isn't Marjory you mean,
Jack, and not the colonel?"

At last Carleton smiled too.
"Well," he returned, "I won't argue about it. You can put it that way if you like. When do they get back?"

"Three months, I believe," answered Vaughan. "I think that was what Rose said." He paused, then added with sympathy, "Sounds like a long time, too, I'll bet."

Carleton made no answer. Slackening speed, the train came to a halt, and, rising, they filed down
the aisle, and out on the Eversley
platform, to find Henry Carleton and Cummings awaiting them. Somewhat perfunctorily Jack Carleton
shook hands with Cummings; then turned to his uncle. "Wait for me
just a minute," he said, "I've got a bag here somewhere," and he strode
off into the station, while the others
turned the corner, and took their places in Carleton's waiting motor. Cummings and Vaughan ushered by their host into the ton-
neau, while he himself took his seat
in front with the chauffeur, a short,
thick-set young fellow, with a round,
pleasant face, honest eyes, and a frank and good-humored smile. He touched his cap, and Henry Carleton nodded in return. "Everything
all right, Satterlee?" he asked, and the chauffeur quickly responded,
"Yes, sir; everything all right,
sir;" then, very respectfully, as if he realized that his interest was leading him into a reach of strict decorum, "Isn't Mr. Jack coming, sir?"

"Oh, yes, he'll be here in a moment," answered his employer, and even as he spoke, Carleton appeared
around the corner of the station,
tossed his bag into the tonneau and came up to the front of the machine
with outstretched hand. "Well, Tom, old man," he cried, "and how are you? Looking fine. You couldn't drive anything but horses when I went away. How do you like this kind of thing? More speed, I guess,
all right."

The chauffeur's answering smile
was the friendliest imaginable, although his taking of Carleton's outstretched hand was a little reluctant, as if he were aware that this was a freedom hardly likely, in a servant, to find favor in his master's eyes. Henry Carleton, indeed, frowned with repressed disapproval.
Kindness and even affability toward one's dependents were permissible—but this frank friendship,
with its implication of equality, of which Jack was guilty, was apt to be destructive of a proper domestic regime. "We're waiting, Jack," he said, his meaning perfectly manifest in his tone, "jump in behind,
please."

Jack Carleton was about to comply; then suddenly, either the beauty of the day or his lack of pleasure
in Jim Cummings' society, served to make him change his mind. He stepped quickly back. "I guess I'll walk
it, after all," he said, "just for the sake of old times. See you at the house," and before he had gone a quarter of the length of the station
lane, a cloud of powdery dust was the only memento of the big motor
left in sight.

Thoughtfully he traversed the familiar path, the meadow lying smooth and fair before him, still peaceful and serene as on the day
when Helmar had walked there three years ago. The same outward world, the same green underfoot, the same glory of blue above. But though Helmar had found nothing
but pleasure in the scene, now,
mellowed and tinted with the oncoming of the summer night, Carle-
ton's meditation ran in a quieter
and sadder strain.

Midway at the bank of the little stream, he paused, and his thoughts,
casting backward, were of the little boy who had sailed his boat in the pool below the bridge, and who had searched so patiently along the pleasant, grass-grown banks to gather and bring home in triumph
to his mother the earliest violets of the spring. Tinged all with vague

GUBERNATORIAL SITUATION IN SOUTH DAKOTA

At left, Governor Robert S. Vessey, seeking re-election. At right, Chauncey L. Wood, democratic nominee.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D.—Interest in the political contest in South Dakota centers in the governorship. The leading candidates are Gov. Robert S. Vessey, progressive republican,
who is seeking re-election, and Chauncey L. Wood, former mayor of Rapid City, who is the nominee of the democratic party.

For years Gov. Vessey has been identified with the progressive wing
of the republican party of the state,
and two years ago, and again in June
last, won the nomination over stalwart republican opponents. The primaries last June were hotly contested and feeling was quite bitter between the two republican factions. It was because of this that the democrats placed Mr. Wood in the field,

their plan being to take advantage
of the alleged republican defection.
While South Dakota has a normal republican majority of not less than 25,000 or 30,000, the democrats figure that a sufficient number of stalwart republicans will bolt Gov. Vessey to give Mr. Wood a victory and land him in the governor's chair.

BURLINGTON MEN MUST OBEY RULES

Superintendent Cunningham Issues Bulletin of the Penalties for Neglect

D. C. Cunningham, superintendent of the La Crosse division of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, has issued a bulletin which is of considerable interest to railroad men of that road. It sets forth that the rules of the road must be lived up to by the employees. The bulletin does not attempt to chide the men to do better, but gives in cold type the story of the downfall of some of the employees of the road who have failed to observe the rules. In one paragraph it tells where a yardmaster was discharged for being intoxicated. In another place it gives an account of the punishment of an engineer who used poor judgment in the handling of his engine and says that he was put back to firing for six months as a punishment for his carelessness.

While the punishment looks rather severe to the layman, the fact must be taken into consideration that the safety of many lives depend upon how closely the rules for operating the road are adhered to by the employees.

THE TEST OF MERIT

La Crosse People Are Given Convincing Proof.

No better test of any article can be made than the test of time and this is particularly true of a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood this test and stood it well. What better proof of the merits of this remedy could you demand, than the statement of a La Crosse resident, who has been cured and has stayed cured?

Read the following:

H. B. Lowry, 508 N. Ninth St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "I think kidney trouble in my case was brought on by a heavy cold which I contracted. I suffered a great deal from a lame and aching back and pains in my head and also had attacks of dizziness. I was never laid up but was so badly run down in health that I could hardly do my work. The kidney secretions were irregular in passage and I was in a bad way when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured at Erhart & Son's Drug Store. They cured me and I have not had a return attack of kidney trouble for several years."

GRAIN MOVEMENT WILL BEGIN SOON

Railroads are getting ready for the stock and grain movement, which ought to be heavy from the present outlook. Indications of immense crops throughout the west are favorable, and the rolling stock is being placed in condition to handle this movement.

The main line of the Burlington through Illinois is being placed in better condition, although this stretch has always been first class.

New ties and rails have been put in and considerable surfacing work done.

The Burlington is getting a part of the green fruit business from the Pacific coast. A few years ago the Burlington handled but little of this traffic. So far this year nearly 100 green fruit specials have passed east over its tracks. It is also hauling scores of cars of bananas to the north coast country.

Passenger travel has been brisk and is more widely scattered than last season, when the bulk of the western tourists went to the Puget Sound country.

WOMEN AT WORK

The Telephone Idea Gives Employment to Thousands of American Girls

In line with the current talk about advancement for women in business affairs and politics, comes the United States Department of Commerce and Labor, with the statement that the telephone business "now ranks among the chief occupations for women, and everywhere ranks close to saleswomen and stenographers as a field of work for women." The report says further that the large majority of telephone operators are the daughters of American born parents, that they have a high average of intelligence, and are drawn from the same elements of society as the saleswomen in stores, but that they are better paid, and as a rule they work under better conditions as to light, heat, ventilation and sanitation.

The Bell companies all recognize the importance of good working conditions to the highest efficiency among their employees. The report explains how a physical examination for operators as well as suitable educational qualifications, and its discussion of the subject may be summed up with the following quotation: "It is the universal policy of telephone companies to employ the best type of women obtainable, and to do this they must keep up the standard of the surroundings in which their employees pass their time."

It is gratifying to the Wisconsin Telephone Company to have such strong endorsements from the government as to conditions in the telephone industry and the high class of women employed. The public should, and no doubt will, be impressed with a higher appreciation of the value and consequence of the bright telephone girl in this and every other community.—Telephone Talk No. S-16.

Mrs. W. J. Torrance gave a five o'clock luncheon at her home, 623 South Sixth street. The invited guests were Mesdames Wm. Torrance, Sr., J. McKown, J. Hodge, Kowallison, Homer Hart, Dr. Phillips, Lee Asplin, R. H. Hoefle, W. Dolling, Forbes and Miss Nettie Torrance.

EMBROIDERY CLUB

Mrs. H. J. Roth, Sr., of 2113 Loomis street, entertained the Eureka Embroidery club, Wednesday afternoon. Those present were Mesdames H. J. Roth, Jr., S. Doherty, W. J. Roth, Sr., and Miss Bessie Holmes. Mrs. H. J. Roth, Jr., will entertain the club next week at 1645 Kane street.

20TH CENTURY CLUB

The Twentieth Century club was entertained by Mrs. R. J. Russell and Mrs. C. S. Van Aken at the Y. W. C. A., corner of Fourth and Cass streets Tuesday afternoon. On account of the absence of the president, Mrs. Davis, the meeting was called to order by the first vice-president Mrs. D. S. MacArthur.

Subject of lesson, John La Farge. The leader, Mrs. Geo. Bradish, was assisted by Mrs. C. A. White, Mrs. Geo. Schweizer, Mrs. Tollefson, Mrs. Soderberg, Mrs. H. C. Stevens and Mrs. D. G. Whyte.

Mr. La Farge is a keen observer and a man of literary instincts. His art manifested itself in many ways. By his drawings on wood he is considered the greatest colorist of our day. The first American artist possessing individual style in religious mural paintings. The first artist to begin painting landscapes in the open air. Taken as a part of his whole career his early achievements were but preparatory to his absorbing labors in developing the art of designing and manufacturing stained glass. Mr. La Farge is the recognized unofficial dean of our great artists and his career represents a singleness of purpose rare in artistic achievements. The discussion of Richard Burton's Rahab by Mrs. Albert Hardy was instructive and interesting.

SCHUMANN-HEINK CONCERT

La Crosse has at last enjoyed a musical awakening. A most enthusiastic audience greeted the great contralto last evening at the La Crosse theatre. Madam Schumann-Heink gave a most perfect program, beginning with the heavier master from operas and oratorios and closing the program with many charming ballads in English which are far too seldom heard on the concert stage. There is no singer who can portray every mood and passion as can this most wonderful artist. She was most generous with her encores. Too much cannot be said of the beauty of Mrs. Hoffman's accompaniments.

HEINK COMPANY ENJOY RIDE

Mrs. George Burton had the pleasure of entertaining Mme. Schumann-Heink and husband and several members of her company at a most enjoyable motor ride yesterday. Two cars started soon after luncheon for West Salem going by the North road and returning by the south, in order to let the distinguished guests fully enjoy the magnificent scenery with which the surrounding country abounds. They were most enthusiastic in their praises of the delightful views, and fine roads. In the first car were Schumann-Heink and husband, Mr. William Rapp, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Robert Whelpley, Mary Burton and Mrs. George Burton. In the other car were Mrs. Shepard and Miss Shepard of Milwaukee and Mrs. Mary Austin. Madam Heink occupied the front seat of the car in order that she might not be tempted to converse much, as she wished to save her voice for the evening.

Mrs. Burton took snap shots of the party which she will send to the Chicago Tribune, the Musical Courier and the Musical America.

HOFFSTOT INDICTED ON BRIBERY CHARGE

PITTSBURG, Oct. 8.—Frank N. Hoffstot, the millionaire steel magnate, indicted on charges of bribery and conspiracy and Max G. Leslie, delinquent tax collector of Allegheny county, indicted on a charge of conspiracy, presented petitions through their attorneys in quarter sessions court today asking that the indictments against them be quashed. The indictments were returned during the graft crusade of District Attorney Blakely against councilmanic corruption.

The petitions are made on the same grounds given in the petitions of John Burgman and T. F. Wallace filed yesterday.

BLITZ and BLATZ

Blitz—Say Blatz, the other day you was speaking of that Gray's Verba Santa Cough Medicine, what Druggist Bayschlag on 503 Main street, sells so much of, and always makes such a big noise about. Of course, I know it's the quickest thing there is, to cure up any cough or cold but why is it? What does it?

Blatz—Didn't I tell you it was constructed entirely differently from the other cough medicines in the market? The ingredients are the best known in medicine and come from many parts of the world, such as South America, Africa, California, the Carolinas, India, France and Missouri!

Blitz—Well in the slang of the street, that's where I am from, and that's why I wanted you to show me.

Blatz—Did I do it clearly to your satisfaction, say it?

Blitz—Yes you done it so well that Bayschlag himself couldn't best it. He must have told you once.

Blatz—Well, to confession it he did.

ROYAL FAMILY IS FORMALLY EXILED

Unconfirmed Rumor Says Boy King Tried to End His Life During Flight

LONDON, Oct. 8.—A dispatch just received here from Gibraltar says that Manuel sailed from there today for Oporto with the intention of attempting to rally an army to regain his throne. The report lacks confirmation.

LISBON, Oct. 8.—The republic of Portugal formally proclaimed the exile today of King Manuel, Queen Mother Amelie, the Duke of Oporto and Dowager Queen Maria Pia.

There has been no confirmation of the story printed in the Seculo that Manuel tried to commit suicide at Mafra, after his flight from the palace and was only prevented from doing so by the interference of his mother.

Manuel Injured Self

According to the Seculo, Manuel was overcome by despondency just before leaving Mafra for the coast, where he was to embark for Gibraltar. The circumstantial story is that Manuel injured himself though whether by a pistol or a knife is not stated.

Dispatches describing the arrival of Manuel at Gibraltar, aboard the Amelie make no mention of the king being wounded. The last word from there was that Manuel appeared in good health and spirits.

The new government continues its active preparations against a resumption of hostilities by the royalists. President Braga declared today that the reports from the provinces where the monarchial spirit is supposed to be the strongest gave the utmost encouragement to the new ministry and that there is little chance of a royalist movement against the capital.

"But we must not overlook our work of preparation," he said. "The people are still in a state of great excitement and until normal conditions are restored we will take every precaution against endangering our new found liberties, which have been so dearly won."

To Execute Enemies
It was reported today that a number of leading royalists and clericals who held out to the last against the new government, are to be executed for their activities. A court martial, it is said, will decide the fate of those included in the ban.

There is fear in some quarters that the new administration will go too far in the punishment of its enemies. The Spanish government has already interfered in behalf of a Spanish captain, a member of the guard, who is under a death sentence.

In the belief that many of the monasteries and convents are storehouses of wealth that should be appropriated by the government, many of these institutions are being searched and the valuables confiscated. More than a score of priests, accused of seditious utterances against the provisional government were arrested today. The police raided their homes in rough fashion.

In confirmation of United Press cables that the revolutionists had no designs against the lives of Manuel and the other members of the royal family, it is learned today that the only demand made of the Duke of Oporto, was that he leave the country. Promising this the duke was not only permitted to go but was given an escort to the Royal Yacht Amelie, on which the revolutionists knew it was intended to carry the royal family to Gibraltar. The promotion of all navy and army officers prominently identified with the revolution will be effected as speedily as possible, according to an official announcement today.

LISBON, Oct. 8.—One of the worst conflicts since the initial outbreak occurred today between the revolutionists and the defenders of the Quelhos Monastery, the latter being captured after a heavy artillery fire in which several monks were killed.

The fight according to the most authentic reports, was started by the monks who attacked a party of passing revolutionists in revenge for the bombardment of the monastery on Wednesday. A rifle fight ensued and the revolutionists were being worsted when infantry, cavalry and artillery reinforcements came up. The monastery was again bombarded and its defenders surrendered after two hours' resistance. It is believed that at least a dozen were killed and a score injured on both sides.

Exiles Aboard Yacht
GIBRALTAR, Oct. 8.—King Manuel and the Portuguese royal family are still aboard the yacht Amelie in the local harbor.

Gov. Sir Archibald Hunter has extended an invitation to the exiles to make his home at Europa Point their stopping place as long as they are in Gibraltar. The royalists have so far remained in almost complete seclusion.

UNUSUALLY GOOD BILL AT MAJESTIC

George S. Van's Aggregation of Imperial Minstrels Is Booked Here

An unusually fine bill has been secured for next week at the Majestic and will contain some of the best acts in vaudeville.

George S. Van's Imperial Minstrels, an aggregation of nine minstrel stars is perhaps the feature of the bill and is a laugh producer of the finest variety. They give a complete first part minstrel in vaudeville and the jokes are not the kind that "you've heard before."

Eugene Ellsworth who is appearing with Edna Lindon in "His Day Off" is a vaudeville light of great ability while Miss Linden is as clever a little woman as ever stepped upon the stage. The playlet which they are putting on is from the pen of Harry Jackson and is a hilarious farce from start to finish.

Den-Orr sisters and "Skeet" Gallagher, in their refined singing and dancing stunt are clever in every sense of the word. They were, until a comparatively short time ago in the Richard Carle shows.

Sandor Brothers, European equilibrist are among the best in their line on the road. After a record breaking run in New York their act was brought to Chicago for several weeks coming from there to La Crosse.

The "Jubilee Singing Four" a comedy quartet, is sure to make a hit, having received praise in Minneapolis where they played last.

Two thousand feet of the latest moving pictures have been booked and will include some of the latest dramas and comedies.

theater, I determined to be guided by the mass meeting which had been called, and that if it indicated a real widespread opposition I would voluntarily cancel the engagement. The mass meeting drew scant attendance and gave no impression of any general opposition such as I felt should exist to warrant me in assuming a very considerable personal loss that would result from the abrogation of my contract, and I therefore decided to put on the pictures, advertising to that effect.

"During the day Friday there was some street talk of an injunction. As the pictures were to go on that night I endeavored in every possible way to learn whether this talk was bona fide, but those said to propose such action skillfully guarded their intentions, and I could secure no light upon the subject. I therefore employed counsel, and was advised that if the pictures were as I represented an injunction would not be issued. In order to substantiate my opinion that the pictures were harmless I next invited some thirty or thirty-five prominent citizens, among them the mayor, the district attorney and a member of the board of police commissioners, to a private exhibition of the pictures. I urged them to offer any criticism that might occur to them, but the verdict was unanimous that there was nothing improper or degrading about them. These gentlemen readily consented to make affidavit to that effect.

Defense Cut Off
"At the conclusion of this private exhibition, and before the guests had left the building, the theater lobby had become jammed to the street with people seeking admission for the regular performance. The doors were opened and I went to the box office while the theater patrons crowded in and took their seats. This was at 7:25 p. m., almost at the moment when the performance was scheduled to begin, and it was then and not until then that I was served with papers purporting to restrain the production of the pictures. The hearing was set for Monday. The effect of this was obvious. I was not to be given a chance to prove my right to exhibit these pictures until two days after my opportunity to exhibit them had passed. In other words I was to be technically prevented from showing the pictures until such a time as a victory upon the merits of the question would be of no use to me.

Bond Inadequate
"I may observe here that the bond provided by the complainant in the case was for $100, while the audience already assembled at the hour of the service had purchased seats amounting to $450 and there existed the probability that the house on the succeeding evening would be worth $450 more. It did not seem to me fair that I should be deprived of approximately $900 under a bond that could indemnify me only in the sum of $100.

"I also wish to call attention to the fact that the complainant, Mr. E. E. Bentley, president of the Bavarian National bank, made affidavit that the appearance of these pictures at the Majestic would damage his residence property on the corner of Ninth and King streets, approximately six blocks away to the extent of $100. Under the law it is necessary for the complainant in such cases to swear that his individual property will suffer in consequence of the act sought to be prevented. I have no feeling in this matter, but it may occur to some people that an affidavit so recklessly made might in itself tend to have a demoralizing influence."

Calls Papers Defective
"Upon the service of the papers I was immediately advised by my attorney of certain irregularities that would warrant me in ignoring the proceedings, and as the house was sold out and hundreds of people were waiting, I proceeded with the show, acting in good faith and fully convinced that I was within my legal rights and was incurring no one.

Courts Timely Advice
"To sum up, I hope the reading of this statement may suggest to citizens honestly actuated in taking public action concerning the conduct and business of others, that better results may be attained and better feeling engendered by proceeding in such a manner as is calculated to attain their end, if it is a proper end, with a minimum of embarrassment and loss to those concerned. In the proceedings under discussion courteous personal notification of objection and pending action might have been wise, and it also might have been fairer to proceed in such a manner as would have permitted the trial to occur in advance of the execution. Citizens interested in the moral status of this community will always find a courteous welcome at the Majestic, where suggestions and timely advice will be received, not with resentment, but with appreciation."

DR. HECKER IS SET FREE TODAY

No Evidence Upon which to Connect Physician with the Death of His Wife

FOX LAKE, Wis., Oct. 8.—With the charge of being responsible for the death of his wife by drowning on Fox Lake, August 29, dismissed, Dr. William Hecker of Watseka, Ill., left here for his home today, a free man. Hecker came back to Fox Lake voluntarily to answer the charges some days ago.

Hecker was freed after Justice Wm. McConnell ruled the evidence produced by the state was not sufficient to hold the physician.

Dr. and Mrs. Hecker spent their summers at Fox Lake. On the morning of August 29, Mrs. Hecker, while fishing with her husband, fell from the boat and was drowned before the physician could reach her. The state found witnesses, who told of circumstances which brought up a question of whether the drowning was accidental.

FIND "JOKER" IN AERO RACE RULES

Three Flyers May "Start," Two Drop Out and Make it a One Man Affair

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—It is now up to Glenn H. Curtiss as to whether or not the aeroplane race from Chicago to New York for which the Chicago Evening Post and the New York Times offered a prize of $25,000 will be started tomorrow.

After being postponed from today the race was as much "up in the air" as ever this afternoon, following a conference between representatives of the two papers and the aviators scheduled to make the flight. Curtiss telegraphed here today that he would arrive tomorrow morning and the management is confident he will rule that all three of his aviators must start and pledge themselves to fly as far as possible.

The promoters laid down the law today that they would not permit Willard, McCurdy and Ely, the aviators to take advantage of the "joker" found in the rules of the race, specifying that three men merely "start" and will not back the race unless all starters make an honest effort to fly the entire distance. The aviators planned for all to start as required by the conditions but with the understanding that Ely was the only one to endeavor to make the entire trip.

PRESTON TRIMS CALEDONIANS

PRESTON, Minn., Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The locals journeyed to Rushford Wednesday, where they met the fast Caledonia aggregation of ball tossers and trimmed them to the tune of 7 to 1.

Blexrud started the game for Caledonia, who proved to be somewhat of a snap for the locals, and three runs were hung up to our credit at the end of the second inning. Bledow was sent to the slao after a hurried warm up, and held the locals down until the seventh, when Danielson walked and Mills batted out a three bagger, scoring him; Hopp singled, scoring Mills. Shook stepped to the plate with blood in his eye, getting his fourth hit of the game, and that a triple, scoring Hopp. Kelley singled, scoring Shook, and the balance went down in one two three order. That was the end of the scoring for the locals. As for the so-called champions, not much can be said of their scoring, as it was impossible for them to connect with the dope that was dished up to them by our man Istrud, fourteen of them going down by the strike out route, and letting them down with three measly hits. Two hits and a stolen base in the third inning gave them their lonely run.

The victory brings the locals into the limelight, and with a chance for championship honors, this making it one game apiece, and the rubber will be played if the management of both teams can come to an agreement. As it stands now, we are a tie, and although the third game can not be agreed on, we have half of the championship rag of southern Minnesota.

Score by innings:
Preston ..... 030000400—7
Caledonia ..... 001000000—1
Batteries—Turk and Ostrud; Hundt, Blexrud and Bledow.

The Keefe Business College will have their band play on the downtown streets tonight.

BIG EASTERN GAMES TODAY

Best Football of Season Expected as Result of Classy Schedule Arranged

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The best football of the season ought to result from today's big eastern games. No one of the so-called big four is booked for a really hard game, but several of the second class eleven appear to be evenly matched and "new football" will be given a thorough tryout.

One of the big teams Harvard will likely make the hardest effort to roll up a big score, in remembrance of last year's close shave with Williams when the score was 8 to 6.

Princeton has been putting up such a sensational game lately that there is regret that the Tigers have not a better opponent than New York University today so that the Princeton alumni might see whether their team is really the champion possibility that its friends have predicted.

Yale will start the game against Holy Cross with a lot of second string men in the line up but will bring in the regulars if the Catholics show a stubborn defense. It is noticeable that there is little betting this year on the size of score, the new rules opening up possibilities for the little teams that make such betting dangerous.

"BIG EIGHT" ON WESTERN GRIDIRON

Today's Games to Serve as Elimination Contests in the Fall Campaign

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—It is a deep, dark secret, but D. A. Fletcher, the outlaw promoter of the new major league is in Chicago today. Fletcher's stopping place is a secret.

He refused to state whether he was seeking capital or players for his new league nor how long he expected to stay here. Only a few of the Cubs were in town today and the promoter did not have a chance to talk business with them but it was expected that he would call on the White Sox, only a few of whom have been approached.

GIVES GOOD LINE ON LEAGUE TEAMS

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The post series of baseball games this year are attracting unusual attention, owing to the fact that the contenders in each series finished in the same relative position in their respective leagues. This fact, it is argued, should give a good line on the relative strength of the National and American leagues.

Neither of the New York teams can now be ousted from second place and Cleveland and Cincinnati which are to play for the Ohio championship are both safely anchored in fifth place. This is the first time that such a condition has prevailed in the inter-league series.

"BIG EIGHT" ON WESTERN GRIDIRON

Today's Games to Serve as Elimination Contests in the Fall Campaign

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The western conference schools held the gridiron spotlight in the central west today every "big eight" team will be in action and the games will serve as elimination contests in the race for the western championship. Several of the teams, however, will have as opponents, colleges outside of the conference and the most important game from a championship standpoint will be the Chicago-Indiana contest here. Chicago is weaker this year than in several seasons and the Hoosiers have one of the best chances ever afforded them to defeat Stagg's men. The new rules have had a telling effect on western football.

MICHIGAN TRIES OUT NEW RULES

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 8.—The first trial of the new football rules for the University of Michigan comes this afternoon when the Wolverines line up against Case Scientific School of Cleveland. Both Coach Yost and Trainer Kraenzlein unite in declaring it to be the best team Michigan has sent against the Clevelanders in five years. All reports show Case is sending a strong team, which has well mastered the new game. On defensive Captain Benbrook of Michigan will play center to try to stop the wicked charges of Case's strong backs.

FRENCH AVIATORS COME HAVRE, France, Oct. 8.—To compete in the international aviation contests at Belmont Park, Long Island, four of the foremost French aviators sailed for America today on the French liner La Lorraine. They were Count Jacques de Lesseps, the channel flyer, Hubert Latham, M. Aubrun and M. Simon.

THE IRON RIVERSIDE

Better than malleable or any other kind of metal body ranges because the cast iron body will never rust through.

The appearance of the Iron Riverside is similar to the finest grade of Steel Ranges, and it has all their conveniences, but the undoubted greater durability of the cast iron body causes many users to prefer it to a malleable or any other kind of Range with sheet metal body.

GENERAL CONSTRUCTION.

This range is all cast iron with the single exception of the oven door lining, which is planished steel. It is square built as to body, having old fashioned honest dimensions, as to flues, fire-box, ovens, etc. It stands on a loose leg base, on which rests the solid, heavy, cast iron bottom. The hearth at the left end can be used, or taken off entirely if the kitchen room happens to be small. Ashes are removed through a large deep pan through the front door. A very handy towel bar across the front protects clothing of persons working about the range and dries towels quickly before the open oven door.

DUPLEX GRATE.

The grate is duplex, reversible for wood, and the end linings are easily removable for wood burning, admitting wood twenty-three inches long. A remarkably large ash pan takes care of the ashes.

Callahan of Eau Claire Has Highest Standing in Batting; Red Wing Team Leads

Tables showing the batting averages of the players, pitchers' averages and club standings for the 1910 season of the Minny league issued by President John A. ## AERIAL EVENT FOR HOSSEY

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 8.—What likely will be the most spectacular event of the entire ten days' aviation meet opening today will be an aerial escort for Arch Hoxsey when he finishes a flight in a Wright biplane from Springfield, Ill., to St. Louis. When Hoxsey reaches Alton, Ill., three Wright aviators will mount from Kinloch field here and strike off cross country to meet Hoxsey. The return of the daring bird-men will be guided from Alton by the flare of burning oil barrels on the big field.

From Springfield to Alton, Hoxsey will follow a special train on the Chicago and Alton railway. The tops of all the coaches will have been painted white. The train will carry officials of aero clubs of St. Louis, and newspaper men.

The St. Louis aviation meet will begin at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and ten events are scheduled in addition to the landing of Hoxsey and his aerial convoy. The meet will continue until Oct. 18. Hoxsey expects to get away from Springfield fair grounds at noon. A non-stop flight, he expects, will take him here before 4 o'clock.

Attell outpointed White at every stage of the game and landed at will. He won by a wide margin.

CUB FANS ARE NOT BETTING

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—The National league fans of Chicago are supremely confident that the Cubs will win the world's series from the Philadelphia Athletics, but they are not betting on it. This was evident today when a dozen different reports showed that there were great bunches of Athletic money being poured in here but few of the bets have been taken. One bet of $1,000 to $1,400 with the Athletics at the short end was recorded, but Cub fans are believed to be waiting for even money.

SMITH A NEW STAR

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—New York fight fans are practically unanimous today in the belief that "Young Sam" Smith of Philadelphia has all the "makings" of a lightweight champion, the belief being deepened by his work against Willie Beecher at the National Sporting club last night. Smith gave Beecher a fearful lacing. Smith had all the best of seven of the ten rounds. The big crowds cheered Smith repeatedly as they thought they saw in him a probable coming champion.

AMERICA'S BEST TELLER OF TALES

Famous Author So Pronounced by Well-Known Critic of Baltimore

MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

Her Latest Novel Appeals to Imagination of Her Hearers

"We have distinguished novelists and character psychologists, students of localities and types, but should anyone ask the name of our best entertainer at present, by way of an out and out good story teller, I should say unhesitatingly Mary Roberts Rinehart." So writes the critic of the Baltimore News, himself a distinguished novelist. "She has mental elasticity, and if she draws a long bow it is with an assurance which says: 'It doesn't matter one bit whether your reason believes this or not, your imagination will.'"

We seldom associate humor with the story of crime and mystery. Poe settled that for us. Then Conan Doyle rebelled mildly, but gave us no very convincing characterization. Mrs. Rinehart's skill in character drawing and her wit blend humor and mystery with naturalness. She is an up-to-date heretic, however, and her men are the men of any drawing room, of any business office, and are not remarkable for any particular reason. Her women are every-day, reasonable and unreasonably, pretty, large or small, or chic women of the world. The narrator of "The Circular Staircase" was the most convincing and agreeable spinner in recent fiction. However much of mischief, machination or martyrdom can be embodied in one spinner, she is the wall flower of the average novel; but Mrs. Rinehart has perceived her possibilities in helping to move a plot along. "When a Man Marries," dramatized as "Seven Days," was comedy made farcical; yet the plausibility of a dinner party quarantined because the Japanese butler took the smallpox was convincing enough for all fictitious purposes. Now, in "The Window at the White Cat" we have another novel of crime and detection which evidently is Mrs. Rinehart's finest ground.

NEW STORY BEST YET John Knox, the attorney, tells the story. He is consulted by Marjorie Fleming concerning the disappearance of her father. Fleming is a ring politician with many enemies and a shabbed reputation. Knox is the lawyer of Miss Fleming's maiden aunts, and thus enters the spinner. Shortly after Fleming's disappearance Spinner No. 2 also is spirited away, and two simultaneous mysterious disappearances in one family provide Mrs. Rinehart with the most baffling, bewildering and complicated plot her deft skill has ever constructed. There also are lost pearls, and money, and much sinister suspicion, and two terribly funny old maids, and a welcome love affair to turn the matter to sweet.

"The Window at the White Cat" is the best yet," concludes the Baltimore critic, and every one of Mrs. Rinehart's hundred thousand readers will echo the sentiment with enthusiasm. It is undoubtedly the big book of the year.

WEIRD DANCES TO BE PUT ON HERE

The "Apache" and "Vampire" in the "Flirting Princess" Have Startled Theatrical World

PLAY IS THE BEST OF YEAR

Harry Bulger, whose Name Is Known from Broadway to San Francisco, Is the Star

The "Flirting Princess" which is to show here on Sunday, October 30, is without doubt one of the best shows to be seen here this season. This musical hit of Mort H. Singer has just finished a sensational run in Chicago.

There are two wonderful dances in "The Flirting Princess," which will open your eyes to the possibilities of the art of dancing in the way of portraying the emotions of the human heart. The Vampire which is based on Kipling's brutal poem, is the picture of ghastly vividness, showing the wiles of the wicked woman dressed in shimmering black, a silver snake winding about her limbs and flashing her beauty and her wiles before her victim's fascinated gaze until at last he kisses her and falls prone at her feet. Then she deliberately stoops down Vampire like, and gnaws his throat, sucking his life blood. "The Vampire" is quite the weirdest and at the same time the most fascinating example of the art of dancing that has been seen in many a day.

The other dance, "The Apache," is another bit of brutality, but it is the rough brutality of the slums. "The Apache" of Paris is the most desperate "tough" in the world. The dance shows the treatment the unfortunate woman owned by the Paris Apache receives at his hands. When one sees this dance one somehow realizes how it comes that a woman often appears in court to plea for the man who has almost beaten her to death. The eternal feminine is the motive of these dances, and the eternal feminine always will attract the sons of men.

Chas. C. Morgan appears in both these dances with Eulalie Jansen in "The Vampire," and with Emery in "The Apache." Miss Jansen and Miss Emery represent almost exactly opposite types, yet each in her dance seems just the type desired. Miss Jansen is tall, lithe, dark hair and eyes, while Miss Emery, slight, yet strong, quick of action, bright eyed and merry. The dances are presented with original music composed by Mr. Howard for this special purpose and the same environment is used to place these dances before the public that has made them the reigning sensation of the year.

Mrs. H. A. Beach is in Wausau, Wis., to attend the state convention of the K. C. T. U. to which she is a delegate.

Backache or Bladder misery and all other distress from disordered Kidneys vanish

No reader of this paper, whether man or woman, need be miserable because of Backache or kidney or bladder disorders.

The time to cure kidney trouble is while it is only trouble—Before it settles into Dropsy, Gravel, Diabetes or Bright's Disease.

Pape's Diuretic acts at once upon the kidneys, bladder and entire urinary system, cleanses, heals and regulates these organs, ducts and glands and completes the cure within a few days. The moment you suspect any kidney or urinary derangement, or feel a constant, dull backache or notice that the urine is thick, cloudy, offensive or full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of stinging, you should begin taking Pape's Diuretic as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other remedy, at any price, made anywhere else in the world, which will effect so thorough and prompt a cure.

Misery in the back, sides or loins, sick headache, inflamed or puffy eyelids, nervousness, prostatic trouble, rheumatism and darting pains, heart palpitations, bilious stomach, dizziness, sleeplessness, listless, weak worn-out feeling and other symptoms caused by inactive, sluggish kidneys simply vanish. Uncontrollable urination (especially at night), smarting, discolored water and all bladder misery ends.

Your physician, pharmacist, banker or any mercantile agency will vouch for the responsibility of Pape, Thompson & Pape of Cincinnati, Ohio, who prepare Pape's Diuretic—50 cent treatment—sold by every druggist in the world.

ST. ELMO TONIGHT

Few novels have been more widely read in the last forty years than St. Elmo, a dramatization of which is to be presented at the La Crosse Theatre this evening. When the author, Augusta Evans-Wilson, died a few months ago, she left an estate of $600,000. Over 75 per cent of this, it is said, represented her royalties on St. Elmo. Mrs. Wilson was constantly besieged with offers to permit the book to be made into a stage story, but only once, it is understood, was she persuaded to allow a play from it to be presented. This was some years ago and exercising a woman's privilege, she changed her mind and the play was withdrawn. Now it has been made into what sterling critics call an excellent play, bringing into life the best situations and most thrilling incidents of the novel. The dramatization is by Miss Grace Hayward, whose literary bent has kept pace with her bright stage career. That it will please a great mass of theatre-goers is indicated by the cordial reception given it in the several cities in which it has been presented.

NEW ALBANIAN REVOLT

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 8.—Another revolt against Turkish rule has broken out in Albania. Today's dispatches say that several isolated Turkish garrisons have been wiped out and a number of officials slain. Turkish reinforcements are now en route to the scene of trouble.

If you could buy the average man's political influence at par, and sell it at his own estimate, there wouldn't be any object in using it to be elected.

BIJOU INSTALLS A NEW MACHINE

One of the Finest Motion Picture Devices Is at the Popular Theater

One of the finest moving picture machines in the northwest has been installed at the Bijou theater by Manager F. J. MacWilliams and will be in operation there commencing tomorrow night.

The machine embodies all the latest patents on various moving picture machine devices and gives a clearness and steadiness to the pictures so often lacking.

The new machine will show the colored moving pictures, one of Edison's latest discoveries, to a greater advantage than the one which has been discarded and is equipped with special appliances for the illustrated songs.

An exceptionally fine program is promised for the various programs of the coming week including some of the greatest laugh producers ever shown in La Crosse. "Vitaphone Girl" plays a prominent part in many of the pictures to be shown during the coming week.

Sunday Attraction

The Girl From The Sunny South will not be the greatest show which has ever appeared at the La Crosse Theatre, but for any one who desires an evening of clean wholesome amusement, it will fill the bill.

The company producing the play is a good one, one which has appeared in nearly every city of note in the northwest, and given universal satisfaction. La Crosse Theatre goers will find a good days amusement tomorrow, matinee and night.

Relatives here are apprised of the marriage of Earl Gibbs and Miss Grace Eckhardt at Wheeling, West Virginia, on Sept. 24th. The groom is the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Gibbs, and is employed with an electrical company at Cleveland, Ohio.

The big roaster and several carloads of material were taken out by the first train over the extension to the mines Wednesday.

The J. M. Frederick household were aroused from sleep about eleven o'clock Sunday night by the alarm of fire, and found that the stub of a cigar which had been left on the front porch had set the rug on fire.

Better Results in the Laundry

Gets the Dirt and Spares the Clothes

You've probably always boiled your clothes. It's necessary with ordinary soaps. But not with Peosta. You'll get better results by simply soaking the clothes in Peosta suds than you will by hours of boiling with ordinary soaps.

Peosta gets the dirt more easily. And it spares the clothes. That is why it is far more economical. No need for scrub-board or boiler—both enemies of your clothes. Try the Peosta way once and save needless work and wear.

All grocers carry Peosta. If yours is out of it, write us. JAMES BEACH & SONS, Dubuque, Iowa. Also manufacturers of Beach's Floating White Castles for clothes and hands.
